Property Description:

In the heart of Santa Ana, one of Mérida's most charming and vibrant neighborhoods, architects Arturo Bravo and Daniel Macías joined forces to create something truly special a home that feels out of the ordinary, designed to reflect the beauty and lifestyle of the Yucatán.

With high ceilings, polished cement floors, and a thoughtful layout, every detail was designed to elevate daily living. To complete the vision they added warmth and character, blending tradition with modern elegance. Is more than a house it's a refined and soulful way to experience Mérida.
